In the above order, the Government have been pleased to appoint me as a Special Magistrate & confer on me all the powers of a Third class Magistrate. When they have been pleased to confer on Sri G. A. Narayanaswami Pillai & Sri Maruti Iyanna, the powers of a Second class Magistrate. Sri M. Iyanna is much [illegible] much. Sri G. A. Narayanaswami Pillai 18/8 myself retired as permanent Taluk Dars. Both of us were held, 1st class Magistrates at the time of the separation of the judicial from the executive. But I was senior to Pillai both in Service & in the appointment of 1st class Magistrate. Never exercised Appellant powers when was Pillai had not invested with these powers. He was seen as subordinate under me when I was Deputy Tahsildar, Gurumitkal. I therefore feel it a humiliation if not disgrace by my having not been invested with the powers of a Second class Magis. I therefore request you to kindly confer on me also the powers of a Second class Magistrate.

Yours sincerely

I recommended the names of Sri. J.A. Arogyaswamy Pillai and Sri. M. Ramanna as President and Vice President respectively for the Bench Court Bellary after due consideratio since in my opinion they are better suited for the appointments than Sri. D.Srinivasa Rao. I request that the resignation of Sri. D.Srinivasa Rao may be accepted. The III class powers conferred on Sri. D.Srinivasa Rao may be withdrawn.
